Speed drives commercial success

A man with dark hair and a beard, wearing a bright yellow raincoat over a black shirt and dark trousers, leans against a light-colored concrete wall. The wall has a grid-like pattern of vertical and horizontal lines. In the background, a calm blue sea meets a pale, overcast sky. A low concrete ledge runs along the water's edge. A semi-transparent grey horizontal band is positioned across the middle of the image, serving as a background for the text.
