Press Release

Yves Müller to be new CFO of HUGO BOSS AG

Metzingen, May 30, 2017. After successfully completing its search for a new chief financial officer, HUGO BOSS AG is announcing that Yves Müller will commence his term as a member of the HUGO BOSS Managing Board no later than January 1, 2018. In his future role as CFO, Mr. Müller will also be responsible for Investor Relations and Administration within the HUGO BOSS Group.

Yves Müller began his professional career in 1994 as an auditor before moving in 1999 to Tchibo GmbH, where he held various positions in top management. In 2006, he was appointed to the Management Board of Tchibo GmbH, where he became Chief Financial Officer.

“Yves Müller possesses a deep understanding of finance and will be bringing many years of profound experience in the retail industry to HUGO BOSS. We believe that this know-how makes him an outstanding fit for the company’s Managing Board,” said Michel Perraudin, Supervisory Board Chairman at HUGO BOSS AG.
