Defined by precision and modern femininity, BOSS's signature tailoring remains the cornerstone of the Fall/Winter 2026 collection. Refined details and a new brushed fabric update classic suiting codes, creating modern, tailored looks that feel both sophisticated and effortless.

Tailored blazers with sharp shoulders, fluid wide-leg trousers, and impeccably constructed separates create a wardrobe that balances authority with ease. Rendered in seasonal neutrals and elevated fabrics, these pieces are designed for women who move seamlessly between professional and social settings. Ideal for the office, business travel, formal engagements, and evening occasions, the looks offer versatility throughout the day.

For a contemporary seasonal approach, tailoring is styled with turtleneck knitwear, adding softness, warmth, and understated elegance while enhancing the collection's confident, timeless appeal.

STATEMENT COATS

Coats take center stage as a defining element of the Fall/Winter 2026 wardrobe. From sharp structures to more fluid silhouettes, each design is crafted to offer both functionality and refinement.

Elevated textures, clean lines, and generous proportions create statement pieces that effortlessly complement the collection's tailoring and knitwear. Designed for the transition between work, travel, and everyday city life, these coats bring polish to any outfit and serve as the perfect finishing layer throughout the season.

For a relaxed yet elevated approach to dressing, they are styled with five-pocket corduroy trousers in ecru, and knitwear crafted from mid- to heavyweight merino yarns, creating a sophisticated seasonal look that combines comfort, warmth, and understated elegance.

REFINED SETS

Matching sets introduce modern ease to seasonal dressing, combining sophistication with versatility.

This light flannel set, featuring straight-leg trousers and a cropped bomber jacket with distinctive cigarette-stitching details, offers a contemporary interpretation of effortless tailoring. The soft fabrication and relaxed silhouette create a refined yet approachable look, balancing comfort with polish.

Designed for a variety of wearing occasions, from business daytime events to elevated off-duty moments, the set delivers maximum versatility throughout the season. Worn together, the coordinated pieces create a confident, streamlined statement; styled separately, they pair seamlessly with knitwear, outerwear, or tailored separates, offering multiple styling possibilities within this season's wardrobe.

REVERS BAG

First introduced in Spring/Summer 2026, the BOSS Reves bag evolves for Fall/Winter 2026 with new silhouettes and refined colorways.

Inspired by the lapel – the signature element of a tailored suit – and finished with a distinctive horizontal belt detail, the Revers reflects BOSS tailoring expertise through a feminine, modern lens.

With the addition of bucket bag and mini tote silhouettes, the collection showcases its versatility for everyday wear, from office to evening. Styled with sharp tailoring, elevated knitwear or casual denim, the Revers effortlessly complements a contemporary wardrobe.

The BOSS Fall/Winter 2026 collection will be available at BOSS stores worldwide, on boss.com, and through wholesale partners.
