IVICA MARIC TO SUCCEED YVES MÜLLER AND ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer Yves Müller is leaving the Managing Board of HUGO BOSS AG for personal reasons and has stepped down from his mandate at his own request. He will be succeeded as a Managing Board member for Finance and Operations by Ivica Maric, currently Executive Vice President Business Operations of HUGO BOSS AG, effective October 1.

Yves Müller joined HUGO BOSS as CFO in December 2017. From July 2020 to May 2021, he served as Spokesperson of the Managing Board. In May 2022, in addition to his role as CFO, he assumed responsibility for Operations – including IT, logistics, production and procurement, as well as purchasing – as COO.

"On behalf of the Supervisory Board, I would like to thank Yves Müller for his commitment and contribution to HUGO BOSS over the past several years. We are grateful for his achievements and wish him all the very best for both his professional and personal future," says Michael Murray, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of HUGO BOSS, and adds: "Ivica Maric has many years of experience both in the financial management of the company and with regard to our operations. In addition, in recent years he has implemented and driven key digitalization and efficiency projects and therefore brings the expertise required for this position."

"Yves Müller has played a decisive role in the successful implementation of CLAIM 5 and made an important contribution to the financial and operational strength HUGO BOSS has today. On behalf of the Managing Board, I would like to sincerely thank Yves for the trustful collaboration and wish him all the best for the future. At the same time, I look forward to continuing our good collaboration with Ivica Maric in his new role," says Daniel Grieder, Chief Executive Officer of HUGO BOSS.
